

How to get to the Marie Stopes International Centre in Canberra:

From interstate by bus:

Bus terminates at the Jolimont Centre. Exit the terminus on the Moore Street side. The ACTHealthBuilding is directly opposite the terminus.

Within Canberra by bus:

Get off at the Civic Interchange. Turn right into Alinga Street.

By car via Federal Highway:

As it approaches the city, the Federal Highway becomes Northbourne Avenue which takes you to the heart of the city. Make a right turn at traffic lights into Alinga Street.

By car via Barton Highway:

Follow Barton Highway to its end. Turn right at traffic lights into Northbourne Avenue. Follow Northbourne Avenue into the City Centre. Make a right turn at traffic lights into Alinga Street.

By car via Monaro Highway:

Turn off Monaro Highway at Canberra Avenue and follow signs to the City. At end of Canberra Avenue, turn right onto State Circle and cross Commonwealth Avenue Bridge into City. Continue straight ahead around Vernon Circle into Northbourne Avenue. Cross London Circuit and then turn left at traffic lights into Alinga Street.

Parking:

Plenty of meter parking in City Centre but best to aim for 3-4 hours in a long-stay park. Closest long-stay parks are on London Circuit (open air) and Marcus Clarke Street (multi-storey).
