

How to get to the Marie Stopes International Centre in Midland

By Car:

Sayer Street is on the corner of Great Eastern Highway. There are two Sayer Streets in Midland, one each side of the shopping centre. Make sure you take the Sayer Street closest to the railway line.

Parking:

There is plenty of parking available both at the rear of the centre and on Sayer Street.

By Train:

Midland train station is only a straight 10 minute walk down Railway Parade to the centre. Trains run regularly between the city and Midland.
